AUBURN WINS 1914 CHAMPIONSHIP

VANDY BANNER AT HALF MAST; TIGER BAND PLAYS "TOUCH DOWN AUBURN"

Rickwood Field, Nov. 14.—In a slow drizzle, Auburn won the championship game, in the football classic of the S. I. A. A. The Orange and Blue triumphed over the Gold and Black by the score of 6 to 0, in what was perhaps the greatest football game ever played on Rickwood Field.

Never before have two teams fought harder, played cleaner, and in a more sportsmanlike manner, when as much was at stake, as did Auburn and Vanderbilt today.

Auburn was plainly the superior of Vandy, more so than the score would indicate, as the Tigers gained, considerably more ground than the Commodores, and had the field been dry, there is no question but that the score would have been larger. The Auburn backs, time and again, crashed through the Vandy line, only to be stopped by the secondary defense, which played close in. Auburn resorted chiefly to close formations employing their famous line divide, at times, while Vandy used a more varied attack, end runs, fake kicks, and forward passes, only one of the latter being successful, but this one for a long gain.

The stars for Auburn are hard to name as every man played jam-up ball and the team worked with machine-like precision.

Offensively Harris, Bidez, and Hart did the best work for the Tigers, the two former doing the line bucking, while the latter gained consistently on end runs. Red Harris, by his work in this game will make a strong bid for all-Southern, when the time comes for picking this team, and "Beady" will have to be considered seriously in this connection also.

"Boozer" Pitts played a great game at center, as did Taylor at guard. Whenever "Robbie" or Bull Kearley hit a Commodore, they always nailed him, and on several occasions, time had to be taken out for some Vandy man, because of the fierce tackling of these men.

Rabbit Curry, for Vandy, stood head and shoulders above his teammates on offensive play, most of the ground gained by his team was credited to him. Sikes also did good work, in all departments, and big Josh Cody, at tackle, was the whole show on the defensive, for his team.

The parade of the Auburn students between halves was as inter-

ECHOES FROM BIRMINGHAM

There is no more chance stopping this Bidez when he is fresh in the game than Thanksgiving has to come on Saturday. To see him dive and plunge through the line one would surmise that Mister Krupp, that well-known builder of guns, had been tampering with the staying power, he would make an all-world team on anybody's pick. He catapults through the line like a six-inch shell and men much more powerful of build are forced to wilt before his rush.

Red Harris is another man who ploughed through the lines and also tore off gains around ends. Red is the man who bucked over with the first and only score of the game. True, he did not have far to go on that last plunge, but that's when it is hardest to go over, when the opposing line has concentrated and the men in danger are making their last stand. Harris is a star. Years from now old Auburn grads will marvel at his brilliant and dazzling play of Saturday afternoon. Harris has not been touted so very high this season, but he won enough distinction Saturday to make him eligible to a membership in the Auburn hall of fame for eternity and then some.

Babe Taylor, Auburn warrior, and by the way, Birmingham-bred, displayed a vast amount of gameness yesterday afternoon. In the early part of the first quarter someone, unthoughtedly of course, kicked in the upper section of Babe's face, in the neighborhood of the left eye. Babe's face wore an expression of agony and the blood trickled down his features in doublequick time, but he stood by the fort and played a grand game of football.

The Auburn band is a great little

With the Pigskin in Southern Colleges

In nearly every instance, the dope ran true to form Saturday and the teams that were scheduled to win were returned the victors. Of course all eyes were centered on the Auburn-Vandy game in Birmingham, the results of which were to decide whether or not Auburn would retain the Southern championship. Auburn won, as we all know, by six points to zero at the same time keeping her goal line uncrossed and practically cinching the Southern gonfalon, for it is generally conceded that the Orange and Blue will win from Georgia, unless something goes radically wrong. In the Auburn-Vandy game there were probably several all-Southern positions cinched as a result of the playing of certain men on each team. For Auburn Red Harris and Bidez should be considered carefully in the choice for the full back position and Kearley and Robinson will in all probability get the wing positions, for the way those lads played was a treat worth going miles to see. Baby Taylor and Louise will no doubt be chosen by some and Boozer Pitts will more than likely be hailed as the premier center of the South again.

For Vandy Ray Curry should run somebody a close race for the quarter back position, for, in addition to running the team, this lad was the principal ground gainer for the Commodores in the Auburn game, as he has been in the last five played by Vandy.

Big Josh Cody proved that he was one of the best tackles in the South by the way he played Saturday. Ammie Sikes, although handicapped by injuries, played a good game and he will no doubt be accorded a position at one of the halves on the mythical eleven. This makes the fifth straight defeat Vandy has suffered this year but the first one in which she has not scored on her opponent, as she even scored on the Michigan bunch.

Tennessee played up to expectations and defeated the Sewanee Tigers in a hard fought game by the score of 14 to 7. However, Sewanee put up a great scrap and during the last quarter threatened to score several times. May starred for the Tennesseeans, making both of the touch downs for his team, while "Big" Parker again did most of the ground gaining for the mountaineers. Tennessee, by winning this game, also remains undefeated, yet she has been scored on by several teams. There can be no question but that Tennessee will be accorded second place in the rating of the S. I. A. A. teams for this season.

Tech defeated their old-time rivals, the University of Georgia, by the small margin of 7 to 0. Tech was expected to win by several touch downs and the way the Red and Black held the Heisman crowd was a surprise to every one. Paddock, Henderson, and Thompson, stood out conspicuously for Georgia and Patten, Capt. Fielder, and Morrison played in the shining roles for the Yellowjackets. From this game, it appears that Auburn will not have a walk-over Saturday

Self-Help Committee Organized

The serious financial condition throughout the country has made it absolutely necessary for an unusually large number of our College students to be either partially or entirely self-supporting, and while there has always been a large number of students at Auburn who come under this class, this year, the number has been nearly doubled. As a consequence of these conditions, plans have been considered and formulated, for the establishment of a Students Employment Bureau. It is the purpose of this bureau to assist free of charge, as many men who really need work and who are sincere in their endeavors to secure an education as is possible.

In order that this bureau may be as far-reaching as possible, this committee has formed three departments, that come in contact with the largest number of men. Departments of college work from which this committee has been chosen, are the Faculty, Y. M. C. A., and Orange and Blue. In turn these three bodies are represented respectively by Prof. B. L. Shi, Mr. Sam Jones Smith and P. E. Engle.

To make this employment bureau a success, the committee earnestly requests that all students who need work, shall place their names with any one of the three persons above mentioned. Along with your name state the kind of work you desire, what you are prepared to do, and what you are willing to do; also state where you can be reached in the shortest possible time. The committee, in turn, will endeavor to keep posted with regard to all of the available work that is to be done about the college or town and will, to the best of their ability, give each man a fair chance at the work that is located. All that the committee asks of the individual, who is assisted in this manner, is that he attend faithfully and carefully to the work given him, so that the system will not receive a black eye to start with.

The merit of each applicant will be given careful consideration and his efficiency established. By this is meant, that the man, who gives the most satisfaction, in a special line of work, will be given first place for the work that is to be done, however, every man will be given a show to make good.

To be placed on the register of the employment bureau no fee is charged, but the committee ask that in order to make this system efficient, and trustworthy, that each man who is given work to do by this means shall do his best to give satisfaction and cooperate with the committee in every possible manner.

"The Footlights"

The cast for "David Garrick" has been definitely settled and rehearsals are going forward rapidly. A great deal of enthusiasm has been developed among the club members and under Prof. Wannamaker's able direction the play promises to be a brilliant success.

On Tuesday night, a week ago, the club was delightfully entertained at the home of Prof. and Mrs. Wannamaker.

The members were unanimous in their appreciation of their hostess' hospitality.

Visions

I dream by night of black-brown hair

Whose tresses in their glory seem To crown the image of my dream With coronet beyond compare.

I dream by night of black-brown eyes

From out whose darker depths divine

Like a white-winged star doth shine A ray of light from Paradise.

I dream by night, when all is stilled Of a rich voice whose accents roll Harmoniously and stir my soul With passion-promise unfulfilled.

I dream by night of wondrous charms Until from dreams' desire iron wrought

I wake and find that there is naught Save in the dark mine out-stretched arms.

Ode to Some Pickles

(Respectfully, but anonymously dedicated to a certain member of the Senior Class.)

Upon a night not long ago

Three fellows sat at ease

And tried to soothe their inner man

With pickles and with cheese.

The cheese, by nature yellow,

Met quick and sure defeat;

But the unassuming pickles

Were very green and sweet.

The eats were good and everything

Seemed lovely for a while—

Till a feaster's flesh, turned wan

and pale

In the middle of a smile.

His face began to shudder,

A twitch and then a jerk;

We looked at him and realized

The pickles were at work!

AUBURN, ALA., NOV. 19, 1914.

By-Laws of the Auburn Chapter of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society.

Article 1. Name.

The name of this Chapter shall be the Auburn Chapter of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society.

Article 2. Officers and Executive Committee:

Section 1. The officers of the chapter shall consist of a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary, and a Treasurer, who shall be elected by ballot at the last regular meeting in each year and shall assume the duties of their respective offices at the beginning of the following term. They shall remain in office one year or until their successors are installed. If vacancies occur they shall be filled by ballot at the next regular or special meeting. The offices of President and Secretary shall always be filled by members of the college faculty or station staff.

Section 2. The duties of the above officers shall be such as usually belong to these offices.

Section 3. The Executive Committee shall consist of the four officers of the chapter together with three other members who shall be appointed by the President at the beginning of the year in such manner as to secure as well as may be proportional representation from each division of the institution, viz., Academic, Agricultural, Engineering, Veterinary Medicine. Beginning with the first meeting of the year 1915-16, any two members of the Executive Committee, except the President and the Secretary, may be students. In addition to the duties prescribed in the succeeding sections, it shall be the duty of the Executive Committee to have charge of the exercises of each meeting and to conduct the affairs of the chapter in the interim between meetings.

Article 3. Membership:

Section 1. Eligibility requirements:

(a) Faculty Members: To be eligible for membership in the Auburn Chapter, a member of the college teaching force or staff of the Experiment Station must be nominated by the unanimous vote of the Executive Committee.

(b) Student Members: Prerequisites to eligibility to membership on the part of students shall be as follows:

1. The character of the candidate throughout his college career must have been above reproach.

2. The candidate must have completed at least 25 months of college work leading toward a degree as further specified in further sections.

3. The candidate must have been in residence at the Alabama Polytechnic Institute for at least 16 months.

4. A candidate elected after the completion of 25 months of college work shall have attained an average grade of 85 per cent and shall not have made a failure in more than one course; the term course meaning the required work in one subject during one year, whether this work occupies the whole 9 months or less. A failure which has been removed by subsequent examination shall be graded at 60 per cent only; a failure not so removed shall be graded as zero unless the failure occurred at the examination just preceding the election. All grades on courses incomplete at time of election are to be averaged as recorded.

5. Candidates elected after the completion of 34 months of college work shall have attained an average grade of 80 per cent and shall not have made failures in more than two courses. Courses are to be defined as in the preceding section, and failures are to be graded as there prescribed.

(c) Alumni Members: These are to be persons of irreproachable character, and may be elected in accordance with the provisions of the general constitution, Art. 2, Secs. 5 and 6. They must be nominated by unanimous vote of the Executive Committee.

(d) Honorary Members: Honorary membership shall be conferred only upon persons not graduates of this institution. Only persons who have distinguished themselves by scholarship and whose character is above reproach shall be eligible to honorary membership, and these must be nominated by unanimous vote of the Executive Committee.

Section 2. Voting power: Of the four classes of members herein provided, only the first two shall have a vote in the election of new members or of officers, or in the decision of other matters requiring a vote of the Society.

Section 3. Determination of grades:

In determining the grades of student candidates for membership, the following method shall be pursued: One hour's work per week continued through one term shall be counted as one unit; two hours, as two units, etc. In courses having laboratory work, two hours of laboratory work per week through a term shall count as one unit. For each course, the final grade attained in that course shall be multiplied by the number of units represented by the course. The sum total of the numbers thus obtained shall be divided by the number of units represented by all the courses pursued, and the result shall be the average grade of the student.

Section 4. Rating of eligible student candidates:

The relative standing of student candidates shall be determined by the Executive Committee, using the method above prescribed, at a meeting of the Committee held for the purpose as soon as possible after the recording of the grades for the second term examinations has been completed. At this meeting the grades of all students who have completed 25 months of work, and also those of all students who have completed 34 months of work, shall be canvassed, and two separate lists of students eligible as to scholarship under the provisions of Article 3, Section 1, sub-sections 4 and 5, shall be made up. After such lists have been obtained, the Executive Committee shall remove from the lists the names of any students of unsatisfactory character. The Committee shall then proceed to consider the individual candidates with respect to participation in worthy college activities, on the basis of a maximum of 100 points for scholarship and a maximum of 25 points for participation in other college activities. Proceeding in this manner, the Executive Committee shall select for recommendation to the society for membership a number not to exceed one-tenth of the Junior class, with a sufficient number of Seniors to bring the representation of that class in the Society up to one-fourth of the membership of the class as a maximum, selecting the candidates in the order of their final standing in both scholarship and activity in worthy student enterprises. In case the number of students in either class, eligible to membership, shall exceed the maximum number admissible by the constitution, those chosen shall be prorated among the several divisions of the institution.

Section 5. Election to membership shall require a two-thirds vote of the members present at the meeting.

Section 6. Any member shall have the privilege of staying the election of any person nominated by the Executive Committee, by handing to the President a written protest against the election of such person at any time before the vote.

In case of such protest the protesting member must appear before a called meeting of the Executive Committee to give reasons for his action. The Executive Committee shall then reconsider the candidate in the light of the facts presented and shall present the results of their investigation at a called meeting of the Society.

Section 7. Notification of Election:

Persons elected to membership shall be notified in writing by the Secretary. In case of active members their acceptance accompanied by the initiation fee must be received within 10 days after such notification or their names shall be dropped from the records of the chapter, due notice of this action being sent to the party in writing.

Article 4. Duties and Badges:

Section 1. Initiation fee: Within 10 days after notification of election each active member-elect shall pay to the Treasurer of the chapter the sum of $5. No election shall be regarded as valid until said fee is paid and the candidate duly initiated. There shall be no additional charges upon initiates for plates at the annual banquet.

Section 2. The badges of the society shall be obtained only through the treasurer of the chapter and from a duly authorized jeweler.

Article 5. Meetings:

Section 1. There shall be four regular meetings of the chapter annually. The first of these shall be held on the third Friday night of the first term, at such hour and place as the Executive Committee may determine upon. The second shall be held within three weeks after the end of the second term, and shall be a meeting for the election of new members. Its exact date and place shall be determined by the Executive Committee. The third regular meeting shall occur two weeks after the second, and shall be a meeting for the initiation of new members. The fourth meeting shall be the annual meeting for the election of officers, and shall occur on Monday of Commencement week at 10 A. M.

Section 2. Special Meetings:

Special meetings may be called by the President at any time during the college year, or by the Secretary upon order of the Executive Committee, due notice of such meeting being sent to the active members.

Section 3. Banquet:

The annual banquet shall occur at such time and place as the Executive Committee shall select, and the expenses thereof shall be defrayed from the funds in the hands of the Treasurer.

Article 6. Quorum:

One-third the number of active members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any regular or special meeting, except the election of members, which shall require two-thirds of the ac-

Mississippi A. and M. walked over Tulane easily, drubbing them 60 to 0.

Princeton threw a scare into the Yale supporters by scoring two touch downs in the last quarter, after the Bull Dogs had scored three in the earlier part of the game.

Forward passes figured largely in the victory of the Blue over the Orange and Black. The score was 19 to 14 in favor of Yale.

THE WAY IT HAPPENED

Shades of Tom Brown, shades of "Buddy." Gosh! but man, that field was muddy. And the ball was slick and slimy causing fumbling all the time. And the rain poured from the heavens on those battling grid elevens. And old fandom in the bleachers, huddled up like homeless creatures. Girly with their steady fellows cuddled underneath umbrellas; grads with money on the battle looked like herds of half drowned cattle, while the freshies with their voices made some mirth-provoking noises.

Students saw their football idol grab another Southern title, saw them grab the bunting fairly, saw them play the old game squarely, saw the same old driving power, as "when knighthood was in flower," saw the Tigers cop another from their lighter Vandy brother, saw McGugin's forces humbled, realized his strength had crumbled.

Fandom saw old Reddy Harris put some bones in plaster paris as he put the lone score over, and placed the Auburn boys in clover. After this they saw some fighting, saw them rearing, kicking, biting. Saw those jerseys ripped asunder, saw those bucks like jarring thunder. Saw those blood-besprattered faces as the men went to their places.

Gee! that battle was a pippin'; ah, old top, 'twas simply ripping. It was really quite refreshing, all that fighting, all that rushing. Bidez, brought forth lots of cheering as he made those plunges daring. And that little fellow Curry caused the Auburnites to worry as he dodged and squirmed and spurted, never once emerging "hurted."

It will be quite some time, brother, till we get to see another contest equal to that week-end drama, won by Auburn, Alabama.—Birmingham News.

Thanksgiving Debate

All arrangements have been completed for the Turkey Day contest between the Literary Societies and the speakers are on edge for what promises to be an unusual display of forensic skill. The Wirts are determined to retain the loving cup which adorns the hall, and the Websterians still smarting under last year's defeat, are thirsting for revenge.

The subject for debate is to be the railroad question. The Wirts will advocate government ownership and control, while the task of the Websterians will be to defend the present system. Smith and Wells, for the former, and Hayes and Manning for the latter, will be the speakers, and these four men should certainly be able to furnish a really interesting evening to the Thanksgiving audience.

Receipts of Games

The receipts of the last two games show a failing off of approximately $1,800 in the profits of the Athletic Association, over last season's games. The Tech game and the Vanderbilt game fail to reach last year's totals by $800 and $1,000, respectively.

At the Vanderbilt game, on Saturday, the gate receipts were $6,125.00, the total general expense of the game was $1,120.00. Auburn's share of the remainder was $2,500.00, and after all of the expenses of the Auburn team are figured down, the profit for the Auburn Athletic Association will be approximately $2,300.00. Last year the total gate receipts of this game were $7,959.00. Auburn's profit out of the game was $3,295, which is practically $1,000 ahead of this year's profit. On the Georgia Tech game, the total receipts were $2,780.00. The total expense of the game was $411.00, leaving $2,369.00 to be divided between the two teams, Auburn's share being $1,184.00. Auburn's expense for the game was $192.00, leaving a profit of $993.00. Last year's profit was $1,703.

EXCHANGES

Lack of funds no obstacle to students of the University of Tennessee. They had the spirit, so all could not keep them away from Nashville. Their private car was the blind baggage.—Orange and White.

1500 go to Chattanooga to see the game between the University of Tennessee and Sewanee.—Orange and White.

"Blue Pencil" to be newest Literary Club for Sophomores and Freshmen.—The Hustler.

We beg to call to the attention of our worthy friend "The Hustler," that Auburn has won three games out of 9 and tied one. Not two out of nine. We may also remark that in the last three years we have tied one game and "won" two.

Vandy's Co-ed to play basketball against Kentucky State and Transylvania.—The Hustler.

The French Club now meets weekly and is engaged at present in reading Moliere. Basketball practice beginning in earnest.—The Hustler.

From the Hustler:
"Auburn has in late years never developed anything more than a plunging attack with little variety. The question narrows down to whether she can gain enough in this way through what seems to be the strongest line Vanderbilt has developed this year to offset the more brilliant attack that can be expected from the Commodores?"

We think that the Hustler's question was answered at "Rickwood Field."

With only one more match to be played, the tennis tournament has about completed. After a hard fight McGill and Terry beat Thheat and Evans for the doubles championship, thereby winning the year's membership which was offered as the prize. McGill and Alex Young remain in the singles and a battle royal is expected when these stars meet.—The Hustler.

Prize offered by two professors for the best Alma Mater song by a student. Twenty dollars will be reward of student writing best Alma Mater song, which must be of literary worth.—The Mississippian.

Successful trip for rifle team. Excellent work, splendid conduct and order of Company H. boys in Camp complimented by Major Tombs.

Smiling and jubilant, Company "H's" rifle team, under command of Lieutenant N. D. Thomas, has returned to the University after a most pleasant and successful trip to the state target practice at Lake Charles.—The Reveille.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

In the Y. M. C. A. notes from week to week, the General Secretary will recommend one book to be read. They will be books that he feels will be of great value to any college man, and any man that does not have access to the book, may procure same from the General Secretary.

The book recommended this week: "Decision of Character," by John Foster. "This book has exerted a greater influence on my mental habits than anything else I have ever read or heard."—John R. Mott.

Homer Turner has been elected Treasurer of the Y. M. C. A., to succeed F. R. Deakins, who did not return to school this year.

On Sunday Nov. 8th, Rev. T. J.

Hutchinson made the talk at the afternoon meeting. The verdict of those present was, that it was one of the best talks that has been given this year.
